HOMEWORK

Learning Outcome

Reflection is key to creating change in teacher practice as they try out new strategies and practices to support ELs.

Assessment: 50 pts.

Due: Session 8

Pedagogical Intent

Teachers can become self-aware as they reflect on and apply learnings from session activities and set goals for future change in their usual practice with English Language learners.

Student Position

Students reflect on their work to change and improve their classroom instruction as part of this course. Reflection helps teachers understand how to work with English Language learners and their families.

Instructions

Each week's reflection journal (to be completed after each session):

1. Think of what action you took last week. Describe it.
2. What event either before, during, or after your action sticks in your mind. Write the details.
3. Now write about--What did you learn, unlearn, and relearn this week?
4. What are the next steps you will take in your practice? What do you hope will result?
