Introduction to Open Education

Gloria Mora

Here is my presentation with answers to some questions frequently asked about Open Educational Resources.

What is open education?

This practice involves making educational resources, tools, and practices accessible to anyone without legal, financial, or technical limitations. It is about being sharing and giving our content or resources for free to others so they can use them.

Watch on YouTube https://edtechbooks.org/-KTA

Google slides

Transcript
https://edtechbooks.org/open_education/introduction_to_open