

LA 7.1 Becoming a Champion Teacher

Relationships with Students

Learning Outcome	Pedagogical Intent	Student Position
Employ strategies to empower parents/families to participate in their child's education. Assessment: 25 pts. TA: 20 Minutes	Teachers collaborate to provide united advocacy for every child they teach.	Across these courses teachers have developed knowledge, skills and dispositions that will enable them to help students reach their potential. They now watch a video about champion teachers to consider how teachers can influence students and their families.

Instructions

1. Using this link, as a whole class you will listen to Rita Pierson discuss how Every Kid Needs a Champion. As you listen, think of who and what you want to be for the students you teach.
2. As a whole class, you will consider how the various projects and activities in this endorsement program have or could position you to be your students' champion.

Egan, M. W., Hales, V., & Gomm, R. J. (2019). Family, School, and Community Partnerships. EdTech Books. Retrieved from <https://edtechbooks.org/partnerships>